Scanvec Amiable Provides Customized Software for New KodakWide-Format Printing System

ROCHESTER, N.Y. – June 17 – Scanvec Amiable, the recognized global leader for complete software solutions for the professional Sign Making, Screen Printing and Digital Printing Industries teams with Kodak’s Graphic Communications Group (GCG) to provide a total wide-format printing solution with the KODAK 1200i Wide-Format Printing System.

Strengthening its offering to the wide-format print market, Scanvec Amiable has developed a customized software bundle to support the new KODAK 1200i wide-format printer, which along with Kodak Quantum Inks and Kodak Wide-Format Media, completes the total wide-format solution. The Scanvec Amiable PhotoPRINT™ SE – Kodak Edition is customized with special integrated Kodak media profiles for optimized output. Both Mac and PC compatible, the Kodak Edition of the PhotoPRINT RIP offers profiles for the T200, NOVAJET 1000i and KODAK 1200i in one complete package. Perfect for new users, this bundle is icon-driven, making it quick and easy to use. PhotoPRINT SE offers the simplicity of a driver combined with sophisticated RIP capabilities.

“Combining the expertise and experience of Scanvec Amiable with Kodak creates a powerful alliance; both companies have an outstanding reputation for raising the bar on performance, quality and affordability,” said Shannon Monroe, Product Manager for the Kodak 1200i system. “These profiles have been fine tuned for optimized color and performance, giving the customer the best-looking output on an array of media.” Monroe continued, “Using PhotoPRINT with the KODAK 1200i wide-format printing system maximizes productivity and allows the customer to attain consistent output time and again.”
